I would like mental health services that are virtual and not face-to-face.

Telehealth services are increasing access to a wide range of providers of mental health services including for example providers of color, providers who speak a non-English language, and a wider choice of providers with specialized expertise. This listing includes Ohio and national “find a provider” search tools to locate licensed mental health providers. The Coalition for a Healthy Community-Oxford OH Area and McCullough-Hyde | TriHealth highly recommend that you conduct your own research and exercise due diligence before selecting any of these individuals or agencies for services. For Ohio-licensed providers, you can check with the relevant state board to verify licensure at elicense.ohio.gov.
